The SAN DIEGO/TIJUANA DANCE_{on}FILM FESTIVAL presents an international collection of experimental short dance film/videos November 2 at SDSU Studio Theatre and on November 3, at the Tijuana Cultural Center. This diverse ten-piece collection will offer dance as a tractor pas de deux, a secret peepshow, a diva's public melodrama, a heart-pounding tribal message from Africa, and in many other innovative ways that challenge the senses and awaken the imagination. These extraordinary films are as vibrant as live theater productions and as expansive as our world.

Screenings will be at 7:30 PM at the SDSU Studio Theatre on Friday, November 2, and at 6 PM and 8 PM at the Tijuana Cultural Center on November 3. In San Diego, tickets will be sold at the door, $10 general admission, $8 students. The DANCE_{on}FILM FESTIVAL is partnering with the Dance Films Association of New York, SDSU School of Music and Dance and the Tijuana Cultural Center. For additional information call (858) 405-9555 or visit www.dancefilmfestival.com.
